Saturday (B, L, D) - Day 4

After a big night with the locals you get to have a sleep in. Wake naturally to the singing Australian native birds and help yourself to a continental breakfast or wander to Out the Back Australia headquarters for a cooked breakfast.

Once everyone is on the move we will head for the magnificent Warrego River to embark on a kayak journey along the windy banks lined with a canopy of ancient river gums, wildlife and birdlife.

Lunch will be at a secluded spot along the way under a shady Coolabah tree that the late Banjo Patterson made famous in his poetry.

The afternoon offers a couple of hour's free time to do anything you like. Bicycles are available if you fancy going for a ride. For those that rested you could now be at an advantage as we head for the adrenalin rush of sand boarding and sledding down the massive natural sand dunes.

Tonight's dinner will be a grand feed of roasted lamb and veggies while you sit back with a cool drink and soak in the peaceful ambience. Sit around the campfire and take the unique opportunity to master the ancient Aboriginal art of playing the didgeridoo, watch the star filled skies or have a sing along.

Sunday (B, L, D) - Day 5

The morning commences with an early breakfast as we depart for the adventures at Rocky Station. Another opportunity to stroll along the banks of the Warrego River on the "Wallaby Walk" so keep your eyes open and be quiet so you can spot one of these cute little fellas often seen at the water's edge.

Act out your "Indiana Jones" fantasy and navigate your way across the 70m swinging footbridge, never before open to the public. Arriving at the homestead, have morning tea and relish in the friendly country hospitality offered by station owners Chris and Mike Webster.

After leaving Rocky Station we head for a farm where we will explore for a couple of days and camp under the star lit skies.

There will be many photo opportunities as you look at the spectacular sunset, wildlife, farm animals and Australian native birds.

Imagine laying back under a rich blue sky soaking up all the therapeutic goodness of the warm Artesian waters in nature's very own spa bath, kangaroos, emu's, sheep and cattle all wander freely and you are surrounded by nature for as far as you can see. It really doesn't get much better than this!

Tonight you will be served great bush tucker in a magnificent outback setting. You will enjoy the evening sitting around the campfire sharing a yarn about your day's experiences and enjoying some great bush entertainment as you immerse yourself in the outback culture.
